The Courier was in error when it said in its last issue that A. W. Polk of Deming, the attorney, was a stockholder in the Columbus State Bank. Mr. Polk said his stock a year or more ago.

DIPHTHERIA IN VILLAGE
Several cases of diphtheria have appeared in Columbus. The six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sigurd had a mild attack during the week but prompt medical attention relieved her.

MAKE YOU SET UP STRAIGHT
Looking for bargains? Well, turn to the last page of the Courier and see the prices quoted by Will Klein of the Bazaar. Some of them will make you set up straight and take notice. The prices are on fall and winter goods.

HEAR THAT STORY
A local though youthful merchant went duck-hunting the first time in his life this week. It was also the first time he ever fired a shotgun. He killed two ducks with one shot. Shot both ducks in the right eye! Says he can prove it by Kelly.

HAS SOME REPUTATION
J. B. Head of Santa Fe, who is not only the State Bank Examiner but a gentleman of more than state wide reputation for his ability to explain the economic situation in this western country, and J. O. Miller, his deputy, are guests at the Hotel Clark.

EASY LIFE FOR MILLER
W. C. Miller, always a familiar figure on the streets of Columbus, is now in Walden, Colo., and he is not selling silver sewing machines any more as he made enough money doing that in Columbus to retire.

FOUR CONGRUENTS ONLY REMAIN
Mrs. Susan A. Moore has returned to Columbus and is the guest of Mrs. J. L. Walker. Mrs. Moore's old home southwest of the city, which has been vacant for some time, has been robbed by vandals. Well, casing, plumbing fixtures and everything portable having been carried off.

SAYS LITTLE, DOES MUCH
The Metals Exploration Company is another new company now at work in the Tres Hermanas G. Wier, president, doesn't have much to say; he believes in action. Wier is the man who sold the Two Republics for $200,000 a couple of years ago.

PATIENT WANTED TO SKIP
The young daughter of a Mexican family was found suffering with diphtheria during the week by Dr. Field and he seized El Paso for an- tioxin. During the same evening he found the entire Mexican family at the depot with tickets purchased to El Paso and Miss. Under threats of arrest they were ordered back home and the child is now taking treatment.

BOXING GLOVES TO TAPE
Think of seeing Dancing Master Clarence Kid Ross and Sportball Hayden go 15 rounds. You may see them two Whirling Dervishes on Thanksgiving afternoon. H. Wright and Corbett Jones are billed as the top-holders and myrtle Lindeman White is ready but it is being asked to a piece of tape that Ross and Hayden receive the most cheers when they enter the ring.

HOLD MEETINGS EACH WEEK
The Women's Auxiliary will meet at the Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. Among those present were Mesdames Frank Walker, Ferrar, Cole, Moody, Rogers and Page. The usual session was attended and discussed, followed by a short business meeting. It was unanimously agreed to hold the meetings each week. The next meeting will be a social one at the home of Mrs. Ferrar on South First street. All women are cordially invited to attend.

MANAGER MURPHY RETURNS

"You know me, Murphy. No, I didn't get married. I married in 1924, and I don't want any divorce, either."

CHAPLAIN THOMAS PRESIDES
A gold-star memorial service will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 at the Twenty-fourth Infantry Service Club. The service will be given in commemoration of the men who participated in the great world war and the signing of the armistice, Nov. 11, 1918. Chaplain A. W. Thomas, who recently returned from Camp Grant, Ill., will deliver the memorial address and music will be furnished by the regimental band. Every one is cordially invited.

FATHER PICKS UP $100 OR MORE
Father Goethorn of this district sometime ago purchased a set of the American Encyclopedia for $60 and as an inducement to buy the publisher threw in a lot located at a beach resort in California. This week the publisher received a letter containing an offer of $100 cash for the lot, and another inquiry as to what he would take for the lot. Father Goethorn is now reading all the advertisements wherein free lots are offered with every purchase.

"SHORTY" FRANKLIN BACK
The charges against "Shorty" Franklin before the grand jury evidently fell flat as "Shorty" is back in Columbus. Franklin was arrested several months ago charged with burglarizing the residence of J. R. Blair. He was taken before Judge Cole who held him to await the action of the grand jury. Mr. Blair at that time partially identified Franklin and upon his testimony that he believed "Shorty" was the man Franklin was found over. Tuesday the grand jury met. Wednesday the evidence was placed before them and Thursday Franklin was discharged and back in Columbus with his friends. Attorney Sprad represented Franklin.

MAKES SNAKE DRUM "TALK"
Can you imagine any one being a servant on the stage using just an ordinary snake drum? Well, Mattie Campbell with the Famous Georgia Minstrels who appear at the Majestic theater in Deming Saturday afternoon and evening, Nov. 13, is what the show people call a "trick." His act is an entirely different from anything ever seen that the audience seem to want more and more, while his comedy is so refreshing he has to respond to encore upon encore. This young man has a bright future and what is more pleasing he does not seem to show he has talent, just acts natural and as though he enjoyed playing his drum and making funny faces.

FIELD A GRANDFATHER
Dr. Field, feeling fine and looking fit, has resumed the practice of medicine at his old office in this city. Last June, while performing an operation on one of Dr. Field's fingers became infected, a virulent attack of blood poisoning resulted. He remained in the Base Hospital at the camp for several months and partially recovered, departing later on an extended vacation at Lancaster and Las Cruces. He is now completely recovered and is back at his office, relieving Dr. Dalney. One particular person that is cheering in the doctor is that their daughter, Mrs. K. A. Stout, wife of the general manager of the Hammer Zinc and Copper Company, on October 20 made Dr. Field a grandfather. Dr. Field says the boy actually weighs him and one-quarter they weigh. Mrs. Field will join the doctor here in Columbus in a month.

MANY WOMEN USE GLYCERINE MIXTURE
Columbus women will be surprised at the INSTANT pleasant action of simple glycerine, buttershoe back, etc., as mixed in After-shave. Or, if you prefer, ANY CASE can be relieved with GLYCERINE MIXTURE. It is a simple, safe, and effective remedy for all skin troubles. It is a simple, safe, and effective remedy for all skin troubles. PEACE TIME ARMY WILL HAVE 337,221 MEN, BAKER STATES

The new tactical peace time organization of the regular army, based on the army reorganization bill, was announced this week by Secretary Baker. It provides for one skeleton army in time of peace with a paper strength of 337,221 men.

An army corps under the new organization will consist of 79,966 men, an infantry division of 19,300 men, a cavalry division of 6,417 men, an artillery brigade of 8,414 men and an infantry brigade of 6,153 men.

The act providing for the new organization divided the country into nine corps areas and in time of war or general mobilization this division would result in three armies, each of the tactical strength and organization announced today. Although peace time strength of the regular army is only 200,000 men, Mr. Baker explained that the national guard and organized reserve would fill the gaps.

AUTOMOBILE THIEVES HUNTED FROM CLOUDS

El Paso, Nov. 12.—Hunting automobile thieves from the clouds is the newest departure of the detective department here. Detective Claude F. Smith was asked recently to locate seven youths wanted for the theft of four automobiles. Several of the cars had been found abandoned at Deming and it was thought the boys were walking back to El Paso. At a suggestion of a local aviator an airplane flight was made to Deming by Captain Smith and every road between the two cities was searched carefully. Although the youths were not found, Captain Smith declares he is a firm believer in the possibility of the airplane for police work.

KILLED BUCK WITH SHOTGUN

Deming, Nov. 9.—J. S. Van Eaton of this city was one of the few hunters who went to the hills for big game and brought home a trophy, and a splendid buck is hanging in front of the Frank Northrup store as evidence. Van Eaton went to the hills with a shotgun and shortly afterwards discovered a big buck a short distance away and opened fire. Effects of the shot knocked the buck down and thinking that it would get away, Van Eaton got busy and jammed on the animal's back and finished the job with his hunting knife. Mr. Van Eaton has the knife to prove it.

HUNDREDS OF AUTOS IN DEMING BOUND FOR PACIFIC COAST

During the last days of the month of October, hundreds of autos on their way to the coast passed were forced to come to Deming on account of the snow in the north. A big advertising campaign will be put on during the winter to show eastern people that the southern route is the most feasible.

NEW MEXICO NEWS.

A report reached Garland this week that an eight-foot oil well had been struck at the well west of Lakewood, which is being drilled by the Kansas-New Mexico Oil company.

Dr. H. R. Mills of Clayton, who is the head of the Inter-Church movement of this state has received an offer from the Community League headquarters at America, Ill., to fill a lecture engagement for the balance of the year. Owing to his many duties at present, Mr. Mills was obliged to decline the offer.

Walter J. Huston of Roy, who was injured some time ago in a runaway, died at his home Saturday evening. It was thought at first that he was not seriously injured but his age was against him.

Calvin Insapine, Alfred Butler of Alamosa reports that nearly 40,000 head of cattle have been shipped from his district during the month of October.

MEN'S CLOTHING HAS DROPPED TO LESS THAN WHOLESALE

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 8.—Men's clothing for immediate delivery was offered today at prices ten to fifty per cent below present wholesale prices. Goods for spring and summer delivery were almost at prices less than thirty-three and one-half per cent under those of one year ago. Men's shirts and other articles were shown at greatly reduced prices.
